

USU Observatory Map

Look for a large white sign on the fence that says, "OBSERVATORY".

To get the most out of your viewing, remember to dress very warm, especially in the winter months! The winds coming from the canyon get quite cold even in the summer. Astronomy does not require a lot of movement consequently your body will not generate the heat that it would if you were moving more consistently.